About Me

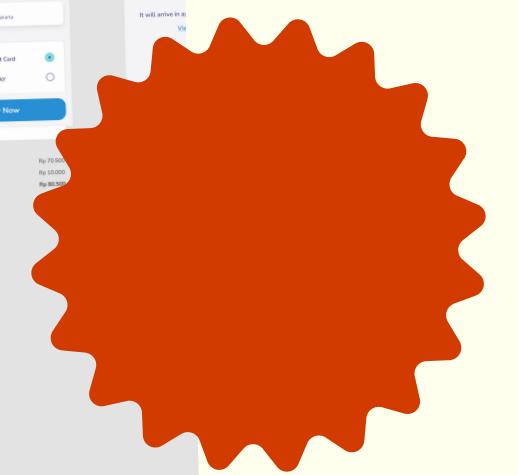

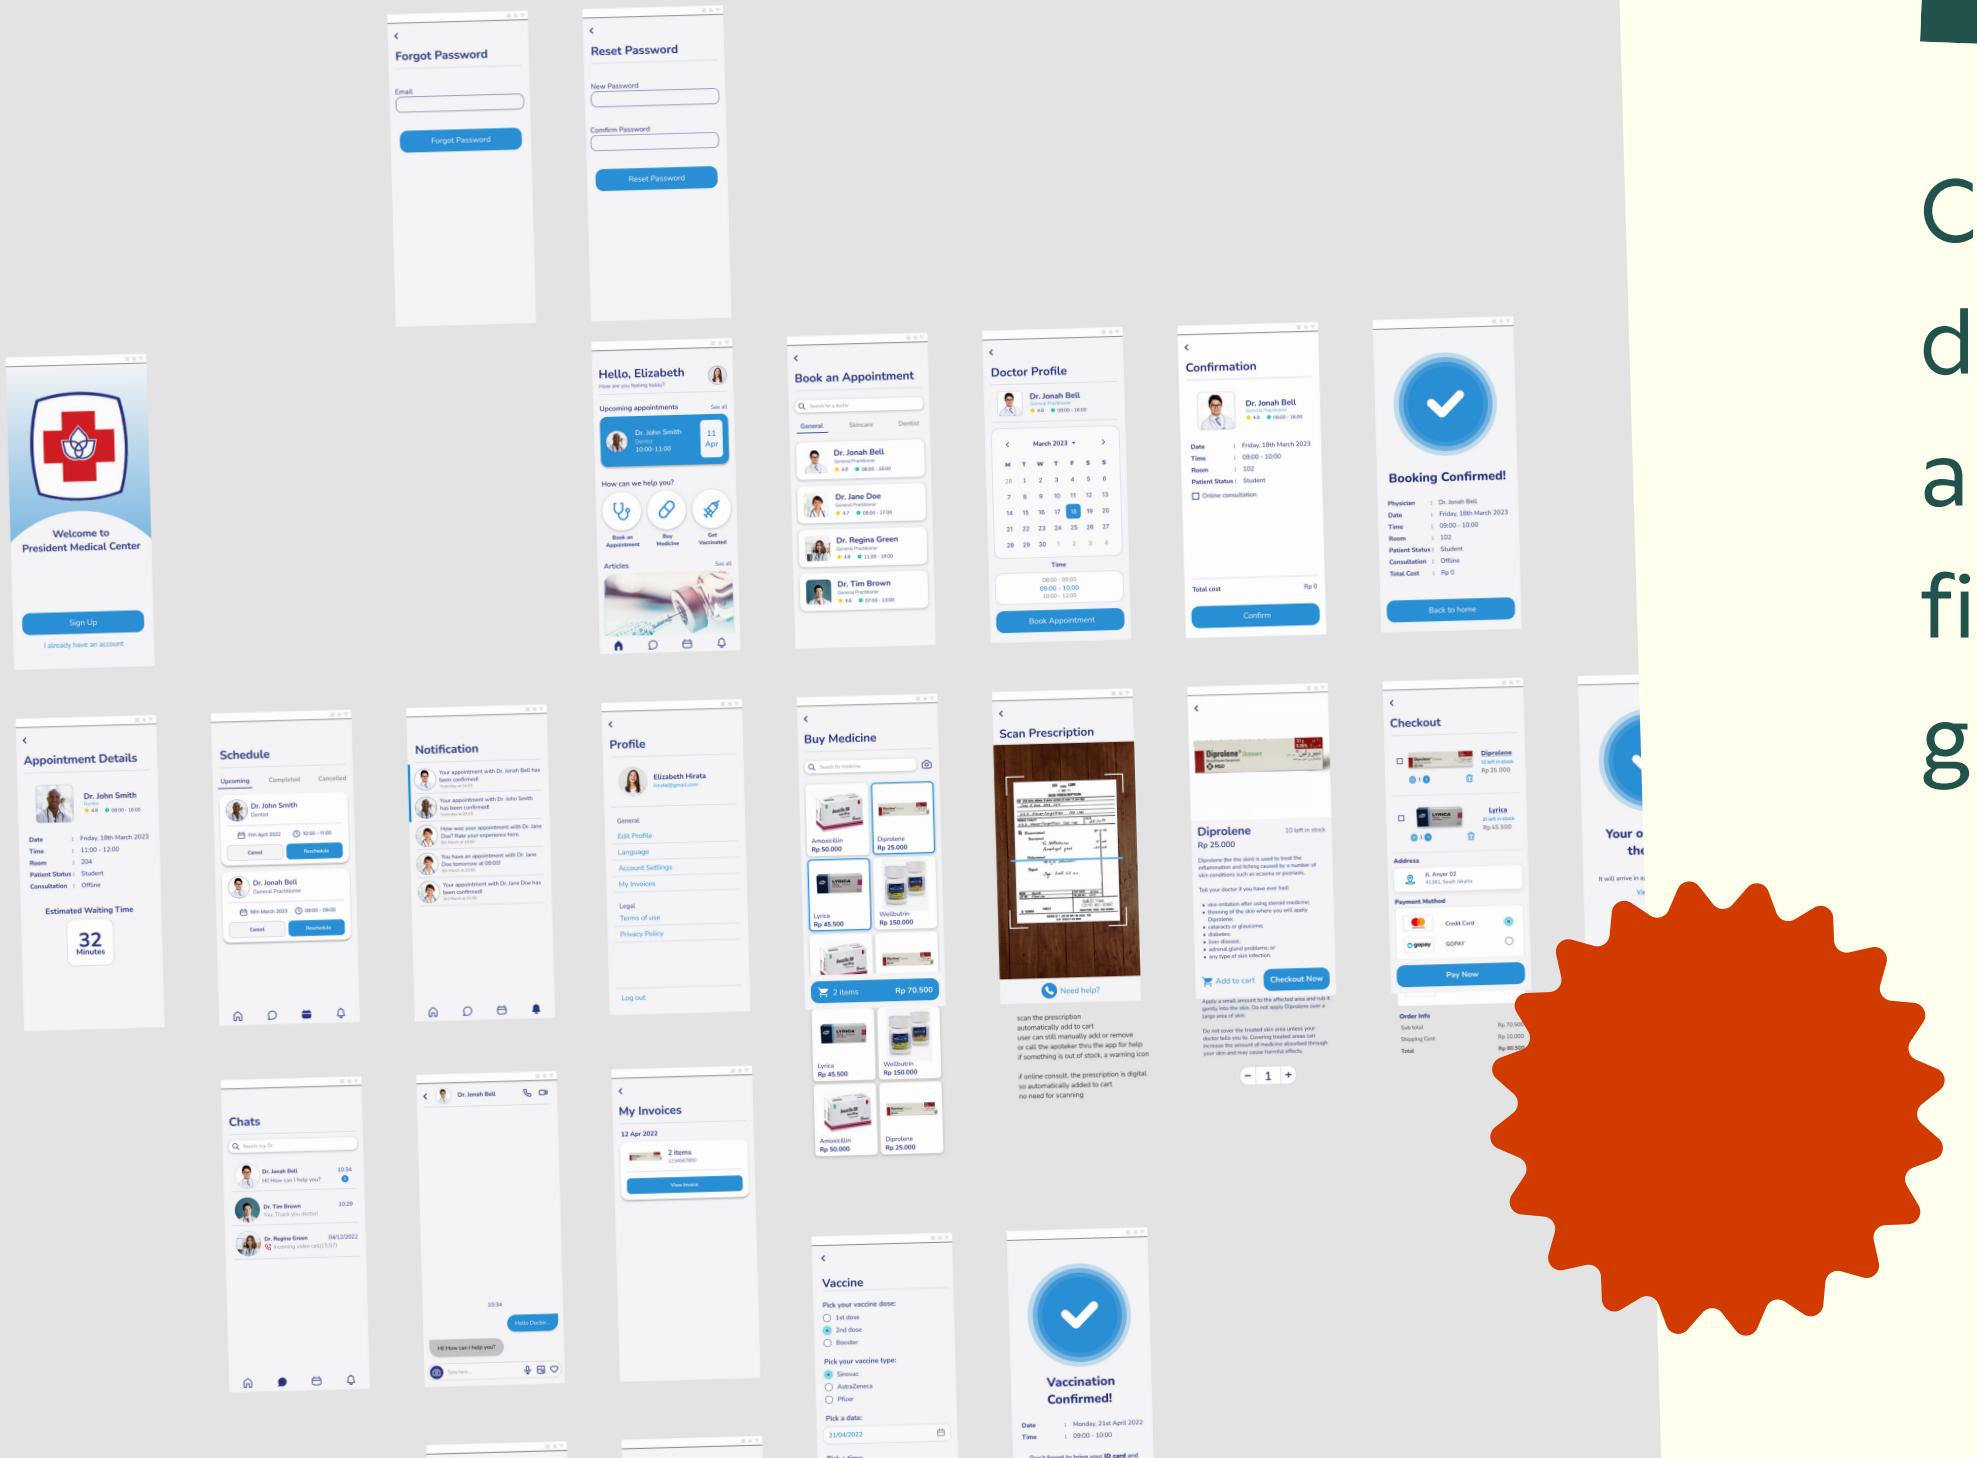

A passionate & determined final-year
Information Technology student, seeking a challenging internship opportunity starting in May 2022 to enhance my skills and begin my professional career.

PRESIDENT UNIVERSITY MEDICAL CENTER (PUMC)

2022

Currently, Me and friends are developing a UI/UX for a mobile application that will be graded as the final grade. We choose PUMC as the group's topic.

This screen shows a detailed product page for Diprolene Ointment. At the top is a small image of the product box. Below it, the product name 'Diprolene Ointment' is displayed, along with its active ingredients 'Betamethasone Dipropionate' and manufacturer 'MSD'. The box also shows '30 g' and '0.05%'. The page includes the following text and buttons:

Diprolene 10 left in stock
Rp 25.000

Diprolene (for the skin) is used to treat the inflammation and itching caused by a number of skin conditions such as eczema or psoriasis.

Tell your doctor if you have ever had:

- skin irritation after using steroid medicine;
- thinning of the skin where you will apply Diprolene;
- cataracts or glaucoma;
- diabetes;
- liver disease;
- adrenal gland problems; or
- any type of skin infection.
